MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

FROM: Daniel J. Bryant for POB
Assistant Attorney General

SUBJECT: Weekly Report for January 14 - January 25, 2002

THE WEEK AHEAD

- Prosecutorial Deliberations: The House Government Reform Committee has noticed a hearing on the "History of Congressional Access to Deliberative Justice Department Documents" for Wednesday, January 23. This is a continuation of the Committee's probe into the FBI's handling of informants in Boston, with particular reference to the Committee's subpoena for internal Department deliberative documents reflecting prosecutorial decision-making regarding certain Boston crime figures and others. The Committee has asked that I testify at this hearing. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The Committee has also noticed hearings for February 6, 7, and 13 as well as several field hearings in Boston to be held on similar subjects.
